

Canadian
Heritage

Patrimoine
canadien

Canada

(PC) Applied Science

Some relevant fields of study: mathematics, chemistry, applied science, engineering, engineering technology.

Our scientists are chiefly concerned with the preservation of heritage objects. Their key roles and duties include:

- Planning, developing and implementing scientific and analytical projects
- Analyzing and applying scientific methods for preserving heritage objects
- Preparing articles for scientific publications
- Conducting scientific research

Salaries range from $62,227 to $102,067 (PC-02 to PC-04)
Effective October 1, 2010

